Interested in becoming a Signatory to the Carbon Industry Code of Conduct?

Use the Code map below to understand how to become a Signatory, your Signatory Type and what being a Signatory will mean for your business.

Does your business operate in the carbon industry and wish to become a Signatory to the Carbon Industry Code of Conduct?

Yes

Does your business activities involve ERF Projects, or voluntary carbon offset schemes such as the Gold Standard or Verified Carbon Standard?

No

The Code may not cover your business activities at this time. Please contact the Code Administrator to find out more information.

Yes

What title best describes the primary focus of your carbon industry business activities?

Purchaser of Carbon Offsets

Stay tuned! New Signatory categories will be added for purchasers of carbon offsets to support the benefits of the Code and the industry!

Your businesses’ Signatory Type under the Code is Project Developer/Aggregator/Agent/Advisor.

At this time, how many projects are you contractually involved with, that are currently being implemented?

<5

Under this Signatory Type your businesses’ is a Category 3

5-14

Under this Signatory Type your businesses’ is a Category 2

>14

Under this Signatory Type your businesses’ is a Category 1

Your businesses’ Signatory Type under the Code is Advisory Services

What are my businesses’ responsibilities as a Signatory to the Code?

As a Signatory to the Code you agree to meet the best practice carbon industry standards outlined in the Code, which include general principles in your dealings with clients or other stakeholders, pre-project activities and project activities. For more information see Information for Signatories and Become a Signatory to the Code of Conduct.

As a Signatory to the Code you agree to meet the compliance, record keeping and reporting requirements under the Code including the submission of an Annual Report at the end of each compliance year. For more information see Information for Signatories.

As a Signatory to the Code you agree to pay an annual fee. See Become a Signatory to the Code of Conduct.

As a Signatory to the Code you agree to use the Code Brand Mark and be recognised as a business supporting best practice in the industry.

Apply to become a Signatory to the Code of Conduct.